

Life is so awesome, with a friend like you
Each moment beautiful, so serene and true

I miss your charming quirks, your talks, your smile
Can't wait to chatter, share laughter and treasure each while

Let's sit by the beach, waves washing our feet
Let's dance in the rain, carefree and complete

Let's go on treks, Indiranagar walks and scenic trails
Sometimes a ride under the moon, where excitement prevails

Life is short, time fleeting like breeze
We must win over sorrows, and cherish the moments we seize
